

The cargo transportation always mates certain risks. Bora Sped in cooperation with the leading insurance brokerage Agency Ltd. "Brokerage Agency ROOT" are offering our customers the cargo insurance services withholding and minimizing any possible risks during the delivery process. Any goods can be taken under the insurance, regardless of type of goods transportation.

The advantages of risk insurance:

First, in case of insurance payment financial security and total compensation of losses are guaranteed to our customers.

Second, our company offers a wide range of risks for insurance. The insurance covers the transportation of cargo from the moment it is loaded from a warehouse till the moment it is delivered and unloaded to the point of destination.

Thus, we are responsible for the safety of Your cargo during the whole transportation process.

All our customers are supported by an individual approach!
